

LESLIE F. COUCH PRIZE

This $1,000 prize is in memory of Leslie F. Couch, a charter member and past president of the Greater Loudonville Association (GLA) whose spirit of community service and volunteer activism inspired the formation of this prize. It is intended for a Town of Colonie resident graduating from high school, who exemplifies volunteerism and whose contributions have benefitted the community.

This application must be returned to the GLA no later than April 1, 2022. Please note that families of the GLA Board members are not eligible. This prize will be awarded at the Annual Meeting of the Greater Loudonville Association in the spring.

1. Describe your community involvement. Include length of time devoted to the activity, and tell us what attracted you to this volunteer opportunity.
2. List your school involvement (i.e. student government, music, sports.)
3. List any significant achievements that you believe have shown perseverance, leadership and/or versatility.
4. Briefly explain your future plans. What your volunteerism has accomplished and how it has affected you.
5. Submit three letters of recommendation from teachers or community leaders.
6. Include your mailing address, email address and telephone number at the top of the first page of your application.

Please email your application by April 1, 2022:
